

12/14/66

Channel 26 - 8-9 PM - Lester Markel show
on the Warren Report:

Tom Wicker

"There was only one set of circumstances that day in Dallas. Only the Warren Commission has, despite one's disagreement with particular details, given the complete picture of the event."

all three agreed:

Interest in case due to

① Kennedy's popularity as young man struck down by an assassin

② American's love a mystery

Touched on single-bullet & Connelly testimony but it didn't seem, in my opinion, a hard point with him.

Max Frankel

Kennedychekov - Kennedy parallel.

"Had K been assassinated by a young man who had gone to USA & married an American girl, and had K been succeeded by a man from that city, what American would believe the assassination to be the work of a one-man deranged individual?"

agreed with Warren Report conclusion of one-man assassin however.
